Hello! Will there be a heavy class schedule today?

The first class of oral Amdo is in Room 201.

The main idea of this class is human evolution.

When will we take a break?

I’m a sophomore, majoring in Tibetan Studies.
Reading and writing Tibetan is somewhat difficult.

While I’m in school, I often miss home.

The teacher guides me like a butter-lamp.

The semester is ending soon so I must prepare for final exams.

Today’s class was amazingly good.
